Assisted Living: Costs And Contracts

A list of financial questions to ask when you and your loved one visit an assisted living facility.

Note: These checklists have been developed by The Consumer Consortium on Assisted Living (CCAL), a national, nonprofit organization dedicated to representing the needs of consumers in assisted living facilities and educating consumers, professionals, and the general public about assisted living issues.

Costs & Contracts

The contract is a legal document, obligating you to potentially pay very large sums of money for care. CCAL encourages you to consult with an elderlaw attorney before signing the document.

What is the baseline fee?

When, how often, and why can the fees be changed?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

When fees are changed, who is informed? How much advanced warning is provided?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

What happens if funds run out? Is there any financial assistance?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Is renter insurance required?

________________________________________________________________________

What happens if there is a spill or accident that destroys property—mine or the facility’s? Who is responsible for cleaning/repairing, payment or replacement?
